Location: Throughout Longview
Date: October 12, 2010
All Day Event: No

The City of Longview will once again sponsor Texans Against Crime, which has been scheduled for Tuesday, October 12. Neighborhoods throughout Longview are invited to join forces with other communities statewide in the effort to reduce crime. Partners in Prevention and the Longview Police Department are the organizers of the citywide event.

According to Brenda Buck, co-coordinator of the event, “The 2010 event will be the 20th year that the City of Longview will participate in an awareness campaign against crime. Over the years, Longview has seen much success with community block parties including multiple national awards.”

Citizens are encouraged to begin planning now for the October event. Through Texans Against Crime, communities are strengthened and residents become more aware of how to prevent crime. For more information or to register a block party, please call 903-237-1019.
